

Check list for submission of your manuscript

- Does your paper fall into the scope of Revista de Patologia Tropical / Journal of Tropical Pathology?
- Have you prepared a cover letter explaining why you consider this manuscript suitable for publication in Revista de Patologia Tropical / Journal of Tropical Pathology? Have you listed all the e-mail addresses of all authors?
- Have you identified potential reviewers whose e-mail addresses you can provide?
- Have you included detailed descriptions of the statistical methods employed in your study?
- Have non-standard abbreviations been defined in the text?
- Your abstract should be in the appropriate format - up to 250 words.
- The end of the introduction should include a brief statement of the intention of the paper (e.g., "We aimed to investigate the association of x with y.")
- Your discussion should start with a brief summary of your main findings. The discussion must include a section assessing the limitations of the study.
- You have uploaded your ARTICLE file as an editable file (in a Wordfile or .doc or .docx). Any tables (maximum 1 page length each) also need to be included within the article file.
- You have declared all funding sources and stated what their role was, in the financial disclosure field in our submission system. Please declare if there were any conflict of interests.
- You have named in the Methods section of your paper the relevant institutional review board or research ethics committee that approved your study, and stated that informed consent was obtained from all participants.
- Is your article written in English?
- Article format must be in Times New Roman, size 12, 1.5 space between lines. Maximum of 4500 words with up to six insertions (figures and tables).
- Digital images must have an approximate resolution of 300dpi with 11cm of width and be designated as figure in the text.
- Have you checked all citations in the text are duly referenced in the Reference section?